96 Sytchcroft park and community space

- a The Committee received an oral update on the development of the Sytchcroft park and community space and noted that:
- Contributions to the project had been provided by S106 funds (£90,000), Neston Town Council (£12,000), Wren £45,000, Tesco £1,000 and CWaC Cllr Andy Williams £1,500).
 - An implementation group had been established comprising representatives from CWaC, Neston Town Council and ForHousing.
 - A further funding opportunity (Grow Wild) had been identified which, if successful, would enable young and disadvantaged people to help with the planting aspects of the Sytchcroft project.
- b The Committee considered paper PE9/96b and agreed that a grant from Grow Wild would further enhance the Sytchcroft development project.

RESOLVED to submit a funding application to Grow Wild to facilitate young and disadvantaged people to help with the Sytchcroft landscaping work.

The Committee noted that the project would be carried out in partnership with CWaC and that Neston Town Council would lead on the grant application and, should the grant be successful, administer all related financial matters. Project implementation would be in partnership with CWaC and volunteer-related activities would be led by CWaC, supervised by CWaC officers and covered by CWaC's policies, risk assessments and insurance.

The Chair requested the recording of thanks to the Governance and Operations Manager for her efforts in progressing this application.

97 Other items: none.
